

Know Your Rights

EVERYONE has the right to remain silent. You can lawfully refuse to speak with an I.C.E agent and not answer any questions—especially about your birthplace, immigration status, or how you entered the U.S.

EVERYONE has the right to speak to an attorney and to not sign anything before doing so. Remember to not show any foreign or false documents.

EVERYONE has the right to refuse a search of their person and belongings without a judicial warrant.

EVERYONE has the right to make a phone call if taken into custody.

EVERYONE has the right to record I.C.E. and police in public, as long as they don't interfere with an arrest. Allies, such as U.S. citizens, can help by writing down names, badge numbers, and witness contacts.

THE U.S. CONSTITUTION PROTECTS THESE FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS FOR EVERYONE — DOCUMENTED OR UNDOCUMENTED.

Do not:

- Obstruct an arrest
- Physically block or touch an ICE agent
- Give legal advice beyond basic rights
- Post the content on social media without consulting first with an immigrant rights organization or the person's attorney
- Share screenshots or unverified rumors about ICE

Key phrases to share:

English

- Don't open the door!
- Remain silent!
- Don't sign anything!
- Speak with a lawyer!

Spanish

- ¡No abra la puerta!
- ¡Guarda silencio!
- ¡No firme nada!
- ¡Hable con un abogado!

How to document

- Film horizontally and continuously. Avoid pausing.
- Pan to establish location with street signs & buildings
- Stay 8 feet away from agents
- Step back if told + film your compliance with a LARGE step & say: "I am stepping back"
- Focus on the AGENTS — Badge numbers, identifying markings, visible facial features
- Do NOT livestream
- Do not focus filming on the people being targeted, other than during their direct interaction with ICE (preserve dignity)
- DO NOT edit your video (for legal legitimacy)

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY Warrant for Arrest of Alien

File No. _____
Date: _____

To: Any individual who is removable pursuant to sections 236 and 287 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, and part 287 of title 8, Code of Federal Regulations, for arrest for immigration violations

Dept. of Homeland Security

I have determined that there is probable cause to believe that _____ is removable from the United States. This determination is based upon:

- the execution of a charging document to initiate removal proceedings against the subject;
- the pendency of ongoing removal proceedings against the subject;
- the failure to establish admissibility subsequent to deferral;
- biometric confirmation of the subject's identity and a review of databases that affirmatively indicate, by themselves or in combination with other information, that the subject either lacks immigration status or notwithstanding such status is removable under U.S. immigration law; and/or
- statements made voluntarily by the subject to an immigration officer and/or other reliable evidence that affirmatively indicate the subject either lacks immigration status or notwithstanding such status is removable under U.S. immigration law.
